Death of an Estimable Lady.

Mrs. Ann Lewis, who was the mother of Hon. John W. Lewis, of Springfield, and Mr. Wood Lewis, the well-known Greenburg merchant, died at her late home, in latter city, last Sunday morning. She was quite an aged lady and highly respected for her religious life and the kindness she always manifested for the needy. She was a sister of Col. John B. Carlisle, who died in this place several years ago, at the home of Judge H. C. Baker. Mrs. Jo Coffey, Sr., and Dr. J. N. Page, this place, were first cousins to the deceased. The intelligence of her death was received here with sorrow and much sympathy has been expressed for the surviving members of the family.

Gone to His Reward.

Mr. James Forckman, who resided in the Pellyton country, died last Friday night. He was about sixty-dive years old and was a good citizen, very much liked by his neighbors. He was confined to his room about six months, afflicted with a complication of diseases. He leaves a wife and several children, who have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

the writer. A short history of the battle of Green River Bridge may be interesting to some of the readers of the Louisville Dispatch. This bridge is situated over Green river, in Tibe's bend, in Taylor county, on the Campbellsville and Columbia pike, eight miles from the former and twelve 'miles from the latter town. When Gen. Morgan arrived in the vicinity of the bridge he was informed that the bridge was held by the Twenty-fifth Michigan Infantry, commanded by Col. D. C. Moore Morgan wished to pass on north without hindrance, demanded a surrender of the bridge on the evening of the 3rd of July, 1863, which the General thought was accorded, as his scouts reported the enemy evacuating the bridge on the night of the 3rd. But the next morning, the Fourth of July, Col. Johnson, of Morgan's command, found the Yankees strongly entrenched in a small opening close to and facing the that Queen Wilhelmina, of Holpike. # Shoes - Shoes - Shoes!

Last fall and early winter, before we had de cided to close out our stock, we had placed large orders with shoe manufacturers for our entire spring lines of shoes. These orders were not subject to countermand, hence, we had to let them come on.

We are now receiving the largest line of shoes for the spring trade we have ever had-all the New Lasts and Leathers in Men's Oxfords, Vici Kids, Gunmetals, Oxbloods, Tans, Patents, Etc.

Ladies' Oxfords, English Ties, Pumps, Buttons, &c.

Boys', Misses', and Children's

ALL KINDS.

We will continue to sell this new stock also at a sacrifice, and advise you to come at once and buy your spring shoes. This is the best opportunity you will have to buy them

While our sales in all departments have been immense for the last 60 days we still have a large stock yet to be disposed of. Re-member this is no sale of old shoddy stuff, but a genuine closing out sale of New, Clean, Up-to-Date Merchandise.

¶ In a few days a new stock of desirable Millinery Goods will be opened up on our first floor and the ladies will be invited to inspect that.
